

Are you a poet or writer?

Do you want to join in on the fight against teen dating violence?

Take Part in Day One's Youth Voices Network Writing Contest

The Youth Voices Network at Day One is searching for poets, short story writers, essayists, and other creative writers to showcase the power of New York City high school students in speaking out against domestic violence.

WINNERS WILL BE PUBLISHED ONLINE AND RECEIVE BARNES & NOBLE GIFT CERTIFICATES.

This Cycle's Theme:
WHAT IS LOVE?

Describe how love would feel in your perfect relationship. What are the most important qualities of love? Why?

Submission Guidelines:

- Write a poem, short story, or essay of no longer than 10 pages.
- Clearly title your submission.
- Send your submission along with a completed submission form (attached) via email to YVNWritingContest@gmail.com as Microsoft Word documents.
- Deadline for Fall-Winter 2011 edition is Friday, December 23, 2011.
